On August 3, 2016, the offender signed his judgment noting he understood he was not to use controlled substances.

On February 7, 2018, the offender was directed to report to the probation office in Richland, Washington, and was notified he would need to submit a random drug test. The offender originally agreed to report but later drove to his home in Walla Walla, Washington, without reporting. After phone contact was made with the offender, he was advised the undersigned officer would be coming to his home to obtain the sample. The offender admitted he had been using methamphetamine and stated he did not need to be contacted. He was advised contact would occur and a sample would be needed or he would need to sign an admission form to the use. Contact was made with the offender and he signed an admission form stating he had used methamphetamine on February 7, 2018.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the violation be incorporated with the violations alleged in the September 20, 2016, December 12, 2017, and January 16, 2018, violation reports.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
